Tritech Announces the Product Retirement Plan for the Typhoon Camera Range

This announcement is formal notification of Tritech International Ltd's retirement of the Typhoon range of subsea cameras. The following product numbers are encompassed by this announcement:

Part No.	Description
S11277	Typhoon Camera 6,000m SS, Subconn BH8M (PAL)
S10352	Typhoon Camera 6,000m SS, Subconn BH6M (PAL)
S11086	Typhoon Camera 4,000m AI, Subconn BH6M (PAL)
S11850	Typhoon Camera 4,000m AI, Seacon 5506-1508 (PAL)
S11475	Typhoon Camera 4,000m AI, Impulse LPMBH-6-MP (PAL)

Reason for Retirement:

The PAL CCD camera module used in the Tornado cameras is now obsolete with no direct replacements available. Current stock of units has been exhausted and the Tornado range of cameras are being withdrawn from sale. At this time Tritech will no longer maintain a full stock of parts or finished units and as such future service and repair work will be subject to availability and lead time of component parts. The timeline for retirement of the product is detailed below.

Retirement Time Line:

Stage	Meaning	Date
Final Time of Sale	After this date, no further new orders for this product will be accepted.	Immediate
Final All Parts Availability	Up to this date all parts will continue to be available for internal and external spares, service and repair orders. After this date availability of service and common repair parts cannot be guaranteed.
Limited Service Parts Availability	After this date items specific to these part numbers will no longer be manufactured or purchased. Service work will no longer be supported and any repairs will be subject to the availability of parts.	31 July 2023
Final Support	After this date, Tritech will no longer guarantee to offer technical support.	31 July 2024

Please contact your normal sales channel for further details and availability of the remaining units and alternative products. If you have any questions regarding this announcement, please do not hesitate to contact Tritech International Ltd. at support@tritech.co.uk or through your normal sales channel.
